About This Game

Desert Law is a new spin on the traditional real-time strategy that immerses players into a post-apocalyptic world where gasoline is the new world currency.

In Desert Law, player takes on the role of Brad as he begins his quest for vengeance against those who ruined his very existence.

After returning to his home village and finding the settlement plundered and destroyed, Brad swears to bring justice to the memory of his slain village. Uniting desolated outcasts, he forges a fighting unit to strike out against bandit gangs, drawing allies under his banner.

Use your tactical skills to survive in the harsh wasteland as you control a group of heroes with different statistics, drive various vehicles and fight your way through the enemy lines.

Features

- Post-apocalyptic settings
- Over 30 missions with multiple objectives ranging from defense, to rescue, to all-out assault is not like what the ad shows and not worth buying. even if it was free I doubt id play it. poor game. Very entertaining sports game. Lots of actions. Easy learning curve on lower difficulty. More intense learning curve on higher difficulty. Will turn out being a classic. For those of you new to Rugby League its diffrent then Rugby Union, go to wilkpedia/youtube learn the game and enjoy. Once you understand the rules you will enjoy the game considerably more.

Highly recommended.

Cheers and Salud. Fun little base defener with some tower defence elements. Fortify has several diffiulties and two different maps. Play the two campaign missions on different difficulties or play arcade mode (have not played it yet) for wave after wave after wave to defend against. The missions have you fight different tyes of enemies while upgrading your base and grabbing small outposts for wood, stone, and iron. It was worth the $0.99 I paid. The game runs smooth although the graphical settings are limited.. It only works on windows XP. It's from that terrible period of time where the console versions were cool dynamic action games and pc versions were bland dull point and clicks.. la dernier mise a jour es ultra cool. WARNING! This game is impossible to play. Take a good look at the Replay Level screen. That is pretty much all you will see.

The idea is to get your animal through the maze without touching the walls. This I found impossible even on the first level. Also I posted on the Discussions board for the games - with no response from the devs. Apparently the game has been released and abandoned.

Idea=10 Game=0

2.99 for more music by Flybyno and a minor faction?

ing steal.. just a scam. AccuRC is my favourite heli sim out there, and in my opinion, the most accurate.

I have roughly 50 hours in Phoenix RC and roughly 50 hours in Heli-X. I have also used Next and Aerofly.

I've now got 10 hours of playtime on AccuRC, and I think it is by far the most accurate feeling simulator I've tried. The weight of the helicopters feels just right, especially in upright/inverted transitions. It absolutely nails tail thrust modelling. This is most noticeable in tic-tocs and rainbows, these feel exactly like they do in real life. AccuRC is the only sim I've tried that correctly portrays the true difficulty of keeping these manoeuvres consistent.

Granted, the sim does have some rough edges here and there, but it is under continuous development and frequent new updates/beta releases keep adding new features/fixes bugs.. A very silly game that gets much more complex as you go along. TP S COOP 40. Even lazier than Nazi Shoot, the developer's other game.

Explore a completely featureless "Jungle".

Shoot some bad guys.

This sucks.
